“ Milton was a fine man, a good friend as well as an invaluable employee at our lawn and garden center. He was reliable and resourceful; always cheerful and and ready to tackle any problems. I was fortunate to join him, with my sons, on one of his fishing trips and saw firsthand his love of nature and the outdoors. We will miss him.

"Know thou of a truth that the soul, after its separation from the body, will continue to progress until it attaineth the presence of God, in a state and condition which neither the revolution of ages and centuries, nor the changes and chances of this world, can alter. It will endure as long as the Kingdom of God, His sovereignty, His dominion and power will endure. It will manifest the signs of God and His attributes, and will reveal His loving kindness and bounty."
