“ Doc raised my best childhood friend, his son Mike. Doc was always patient and positive around me. No matter what was going on and you'd ask him how he was was he would respond "Ooh pretty good." I'd imagine being a WWII veteran of D-day wouldn't be as hard in life after those experiences. This Marine respectfully salutes you Doc. Till Valhalla!

“ My deepest sympathy to Doc's family. My dad and Doc were life-long, best friends. Oh, the shenanigans those two got into, enough memories to fill a book. Our families spent many fun times together. Doc was a friend to all and was loved by anyone lucky enough to be part of his life. He was just an all around super guy. May his love for you and the many memories you have made with him, sustain you in this difficult time. Fly high Doc, you certainly earned your wings.
