

Paul "Chip" H. Batchelder

November 26, 1960 - August 1, 2017

Paul "Chip" H. Batchelder, 56, of Oshkosh, died Tuesday, August 1, 2017, at home.

He was born on November 26, 1960, in Deacon, Illinois, a son of Byron and Margaret Streubel Batchelder.

Paul served with the United States Navy from 1979-1983. He drove the Joint Chief of Staff members throughout the Washington, D.C. area.

He married Susan Ann Stefanik.

Chip worked with Building Services Group, Little Chute, from July 2013 to April 2017. He enjoyed craft fairs, fishing, going to museums, and traveling to Disney World. He was an executive chef in the military and later owned his own restaurant in Louisiana. Chip was an instructor at Fox Valley Technical College where he taught courses in culinary arts and worked at a couple of restaurants in Door County.

He is survived by his friend, Sue LaBuda of Oshkosh, and an adopted sister, Kathy of Elkhart Lake.

He was preceded in death by his parents and wife.

SERVICE: A graveside service will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, August 8, 2017, at Shrine of Rest Mausoleum in Ledgeview Memorial Park with Chaplain Joseph Pietrangelo. Military rites will be conducted by the American Legion Trier Puddy Post 75.

Tribute Wall

JE

“ When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure. May the wonderful treasures of your beloved Paul "Chip" Batchelder fill your hearts with love and peace. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time, Hosea 13:14

Jen - August 03, 2017 at 12:00 AM