“ Uncle Dick had a tremendous impact in my life and will long be remembered with thanksgiving for life shared. The games of Rook, grilled cheese sandwiches with Aunt Gertrude and him, the first ride on the tractor, stock car races, and moments of wonderful laughter are fondly remembered. I regret that work has me in Europe and that I will miss the funeral, but please know I am holding each of you in heartfelt love and prayer during these days. In gratitude for his life and with sincerest condolences for your loss may you know the holy love of God's sustaining presence, Bruce Fenner
