“ Ricky was such a sweet guy. when we were young. he was the best friend of my best friends brother (Jeff Drefcinski) so we hung out at their house a lot. Ricky was too hung to pass. But I guess he will see Jeff again along with other loved ones.

“ Rick I am saddened to hear that you left us already, that was too early, we had a lot of good memories on the Westside growing up, remember the toboggan run LOL and also it was a pleasure working with you at Dominos you made that work environment so much fun. I still get a chuckle of you walking across the Mason Street bridge in Green Bay with the sandwich board! God bless you Rick and your family tooMark
