“ Thank you to all who attended my father's funeral. We appreciate all who stood so long in line that day. Many thanks to everyone for their preparations for the funeral - the clergy, funeral directors, florists, church members, family members, etc. Memories of my father will live forever in many of our spirits as he touched many hearts throughout the 62 years of his life. Thank you all.

“ Brenda & family,
Though I never met your dad, I can only imagine what a great guy he must have been - he had a wonderful daughter like you! You and your entire family will be in our prayers for healing.
Much love, Wendy, Scott, Madison, Olivia & Anna
