

Robert William McKenzie Brown

May 26, 1924 - September 11, 2010

Robert William McKenzie Brown, 86, of Fond du Lac, died Saturday, September 11, 2010, at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac. He was born on May 26, 1924, in Peterculter, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, a son of Joseph and Ann Brown. He served in the British Army during World War II in Austria with the Royal Electrical Mechanical Engineers. When the war ended, he immigrated to the United States of America and lived in Billings, Montana, and worked on a ranch for fifteen years. He met his wife, Carol Ann Knecht, while living in Montana and they were united in marriage on June 26, 1965, at Church of Peace United Church of Christ, Fond du Lac. Robert worked at Mercury Marine for 24 years and retired when the foundry closed in 1991. He is survived by a daughter, Shawna of Fond du Lac; two brothers: James and John; two sisters: Ena and Helen. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Carol; five brothers: Dick, Walter, Douglas, Fred, and William; and a sister, Tina. A graveside service and burial will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, September 15, 2010, at Estabrooks Cemetery with Rev. Ted Drewsen officiating. Robert was a genuinely good hearted and easy going guy who will be missed by all who knew him.

Tribute Wall

JW

“ Both of us really enjoyed visiting and talking with Bob whenever he would come around to visit. I (Linda) especially liked to listen to his stories about being a cowboy in Montana. He was a real sweetheart and we feel priveledged to have known him. On September 11th an angel entered heaven and his name was Bob Brown. Our condolences to all of you. Linda and John Witte

---

John and Linda Witte - September 14, 2010 at 06:16 PM

JW

“ Both of us really enjoyed visiting and talking with Bob whenever he would come around to visit. I (Linda) especially liked to listen to his stories about being a cowboy in Montana. He was a real sweetheart and we feel priveledged to have known him. On September 11th an angel entered heaven and his name was Bob Brown. Our condolences to all of you.Linda and John Witte

---

John and Linda Witte of Green Lake, WI - September 14, 2010 at 12:00 AM