“ To say that I’m very sadden to hear this is an understatement, loved this family as a youngster, still do to this day, couldn’t ask for better neighbors back in the day as well. Sandy was always very welcoming whenever I came over, whether it was for me looking for Jim to hang out, or just wanting to hang out with Dan in his small television room and listen to his awesome stories while watching the tube. Sandy was always that mother figure that even though you weren’t one of her own, she would treat you like you were, whether it was making sure you were fed or making sure you were doing okay and staying out of trouble. Thank You Sandy for being that beautiful soul and letting me be part of your family, you will truly be missed by many! GODSPEED

“ Saddened to hear about the passing of Sandy. To say I spent a lot of time during my childhood on Arndt St would be an understatement. I remember that house and back entrance very vividly. One of the things I remember about people is always how they greet me. Sandy was no different. “Hey Mister Braauunnn” would roll off her tongue everytime I slipped in the back door and sat down in that little area between the kitchen and living room. Bill P, Jimmy, and I spent our most time around there in our junior high and hs days. I’m glad that at the time of her passing, she still thinks I was the good one of the group! Lol
Thank you “aunt Sandy” for all of the times you provided a safe and non judgmental haven for us after a weekend of shenanigans and poor decisions. I have so many great memories of my childhood and you were a big part of that.
Until we meet again-
Sincerely,
Mister Braauunnn
