“ Sara sure sounds like a wonderful woman. I don't personally know her, I suffer from Lupus & numerous other Autoimmune diseases. I understand her suffering & the lack of medical knowledge. Yes, we are strong! Our diseases made us to be more caring, compassionate & faithful. You also learn to be non judgmental. No 1 really understands what it's like to fight to get through each day. Sara no longer suffers. May GOD hold your family close & BLESS your lives w/precious, happy memories. Your family is in my prayers. GOD BLESS YOU~

“ Pam and Dana, I can't imagine your pain, but please know that there are people that share your pain. Sara was a beautiful woman and did make a difference in people's lives. I'm happy to have had the chance to transport Sara and share her pain of no answers. She is with the Lord and feels no pain. Please except my sympathy. Jeanne (CORDS) Rentmeester

“ Dan and Pam, Words cannot express how sorry I am for your loss. I was lucky to count Sara as one of my best friends for several years of my early adulthood. We spent so much time together people thought we were related. Sara helped me come out of my shell and forever changed the course of my life. I am glad that Sara and I were able to reconnect within the last year, if not at the same level as we once were. I can't believe that she's gone. I wish I could be there today, and certainly would have come after work. I will be there in spirit, and will keep you and your family in my prayers. Hugs.
