“ Dan and Family - So sorry to read about Sharon. I will miss her also, especially her smile and friendliness. Last time I saw you both in church, I had wanted to talk with you but then I noticed that you left rather quickly. Sharon caught my glance at one point and I really wanted to let her know that I, too, love her (I wanted to form a heart with my hands and then point to her) but I didn't get to do that. I know that you all know she has gone to her heavenly, eternal home and as the hymn goes "I'm but a stranger here, heaven is my home" we are all strangers on earth. My prayer is for you all to find comfort and hope in our Lord--we WILL meet again when Jesus deems it appropriate. Hugs to you, Dan!

“ As I read the name Sharon Fiebiger, I'm thinking, hmmm, that's sounds familiar. Then I read the obit and it's, "Oh, that's right, she replaced me at St. Paul's, Van Dyne." Then I read all the relatives names--hey, I used to know all of them! I happened to stumble on the whole situation in talking to Debra's mom at exercise class Fri. You all have my sympathy for you loss. Beverly (Heine) Nehls.
