“ 6 years ago I awoke to one of the worst messages of my life. 6 years ago I went to school and cried the whole day. 6 years ago was hard and no one told me it would always be that hard. It has been 6 years and i still miss you, always wondering if I am doing what you think is a good idea. Would you still love me, would you like who I have become? 6 years ago I didn't get to say goodbye and I wonder to this day if you knew how much I loved you. 6 years ago today my heart lost a piece I will never retain again. I do not know if you can read this or feel our pain and sorrow of your loss, but I suppose writing this is for my comfort that you can. I wish I wasn't so young when you passed, I wish there were many more things you could have taught me. I love you

“ Grandma - I can't believe that you are gone. I know that it would happen eventually, but you were taken from us too soon. But I know that God has you safe and free from pain in Heaven. Even though you will be sorely missed, we will still love you unconditionally and have you in our hearts until we are reunited in Heaven. You are my hero, my friend, and most of all...the best grandmother someone could have. I love you Grandma! I can't wait to see you again!

“ In 6 days, it will be 4 years. This time of year is always hard, for all of us. I know you've been looking down on me all this time but I wish you were here physically. These four years, were hell. They were horrible, many downs, with the exception of ups as well. I love you, I always have, I always will. We will meet soon.
