“ Vicki was an Awesome sister and friend. I will miss her very much. We had normal sibling rivalries, but way more funny laugh out loud to tears memories. We talked as often as we could. When I moved to MN after I got married in 2006 it was tough. We visited as much as we could, but there just never seemed there was enough time to fit in our weekend visits. I am grateful for being able to see her before the Lord took her home. I did ask her if she was ready to go and she said to me, “Bring It!” I am thankful for her strong faith in Jesus Christ our Lord. Without that, I don’t know how she would have coped or me for that matter, thanks to our parents. Vicki did go through a lot of medical issues prior to the cancer diagnosis and she always pressed on with a positive attitude, continued to go to church, pray, and talk. I will miss those talks to be sure. I love you Vicki and I will miss you always! Until we meet again in our Lord’s Heaven. ❤️🙏♀️ Your little sister Sheri
