

Vivian Mary Aasby

December 15, 1922 - May 13, 2016

Vivian Mary Aasby, a former longtime resident of Estherville, Iowa, peacefully passed through Heaven's gates on Friday, May 13, 2016, at St. Francis Home, Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, at the age of 93. Vivian, daughter of William and Myrtle (Harsh) Bunkofske, of Swea City, Iowa, was born on December 15, 1922, in Burt, Iowa. On February 15, 1942, Vivian was united in marriage with Oliver Wendel Aasby, in Swea City, Iowa. They made their home in Estherville, Iowa, where they raised four children. They lived in Estherville until they moved to Fond du Lac in December 2003, to be closer to children and grandchildren. Left to cherish her memory are her children: Muriel Liebelt and her husband, David of Fond du Lac; Wendell Aasby and his wife, Joette of Fond du Lac; Lorene Liebelt and her husband, Roger of Arlington, Texas; and Loren Aasby and his wife, Barb of Tulsa, Oklahoma; eight grandchildren; and 18 great-grandchildren. Vivian was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Oliver Aasby; three brothers and two sisters. SERVICE: A funeral service will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, May 19, 2016, at Kurki-Mach Funeral Chapel & Crematory, 31 East Division Street, Fond du Lac, with Rev. Tim Carlton and Rev. Richard Balken officiating. VISITATION: The visitation will be on Thursday from 5:00 – 7:00 p.m. at Kurki-Mach Funeral Chapel & Crematory.
