Do not stand at my grave and weep. I am not there, I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow; I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awake in the morning's hush, I am the swift upflying rush of quiet birds in circling flight, I am the soft star-shine at night. Do not stand there at my grave and cry, I am not there. I did not die. Mary Elizabeth Frye
